

Weddings at

S U M A P A R K

Situated on 100 acres, Suma Park, established in 1888 by racehorse breeder James Wilson, is one of the Bellarine's best-known heritage properties.

The grand late-Victorian homestead, historic stables, cottage accommodation, extensive gardens, and sweeping views across Swan Bay and Port Philip Bay ensure the beauty and privacy your wedding day deserves.

Suma Park is dedicated to creating you an unforgettable experience uniquely tailored to suit your style and individual needs.

HIGHLIGHTS

COTTAGES

All wedding bookings include exclusive use of Suma Park's spacious 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom cottages which sleep up to 56 people.

BRIDAL SUITE

The charming 'Mistress Cottage' is tucked away adjacent to The Homestead, making it ideal for bridal party preparation.

EASE OF MIND

Our in-house event coordinator, trusted caterers and experienced staff ensure planning your wedding is simple and stress free.

GARDENS

Lovingly cared for gardens and surrounds can be used stand alone or in combination with the historic Stables.

LOCATION

A 90-minute drive from Melbourne and 10 minutes to the Queenscliff ferry terminal.

PRIVATE RAIL

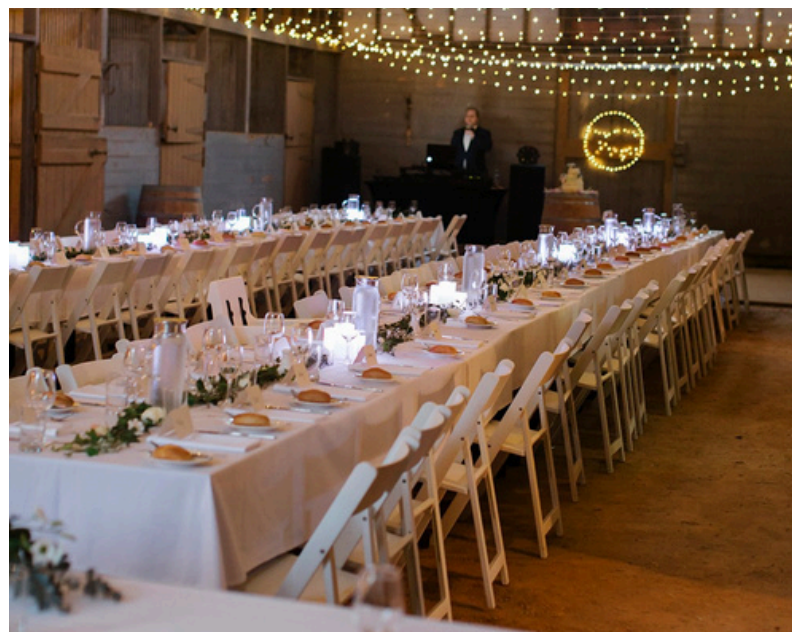

Linked directly to the historic Bellarine Railway, our private railway station offers exclusive carriage hire and creates an experience you and your guests won't forget.

THE STABLES

The Stables is an original 1880's building, beautifully restored to provide a unique and memorable space for wedding receptions and celebrations for up to 100 guests seated and 120 guests standing (cocktail).

The interior features a stunning pitched roof and versatile 'horse' stalls that are utilised for bar service, photo booths, tea and coffee stations, lolly bars and more! A spacious hedged lawn area adjoins The Stables for cocktail mingling.
